ANNOUNCEMENTS.

In this column you will find, from week to week, the SPECIAL announcements of the publishing committee. There are times when we can offer special inducements to our customers, in the way of books, papers, etc. Look for them in this column.

The price of the EVANGELIST, including the last number, to the end of the year, ONLY 20 CENTS. If 100 congregations will send us on an average ten subscribers at 20 cents each it will add 1000 subscribers to the list. This can easily be done with a little effort on the part of pastors and agents. To all new subscribers the paper will be sent to the end of the year '95 for $1.50 thus giving it FREE the balance of this year.

We have issued a small tract entitled "The Golden Baptism," by J. D. McFaden. It is an excellent leaflet and should be distributed by the hundred. Will fit an envelope of ordinary size, printed on heavy coated book paper. Very neat. Price 5 cents a dozen, 20 cents per hundred.

Marriages.

LOTZ-BERKEYBILE.—At the residence of the bride's parents in this place, on Sept. 28th, 1894, promptly at 6 P. M., Mr. Harry L. Lotz, of Wilmine, and sister Annie L. Berkeybile were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the writer. May their life be a happy one and may their pathway be strewn with God's richest blessings.

J. F. KOONTZ.

TRIPLE WEDDING.—Sept. 5th, 1894, at the residence of D. D. Bonnett, Turlock, Cal., Messrs. Thomas B. Gaddis, Leo A. Fuller and John H. Gardner to Misses Etta M. Bonnett, C. Alta Ronk and P. Artie A. M. Ronk, in the order given.

The ladies are first cousins and sisters in Christ. Seventy-six guests were present. The affair was reported by the Associated Press. Triple weddings are rare. Z. H. Copp of Winchester, officiated.

JONES-REAMER.—Married by the undersigned on Oct. 18th, 1894, at pastor's residence, Mr. John W. Jones and Mrs. Eunice J. Reamer, both of Pittsburg, Pa.

W. J. BOLE.

Our Dead.

BRUMBAUGH.—Mellie Brumbaugh of near New Baltimore, O., was born, in Stark Co., O., August 29th, 1847, died March 30th, 1894, aged 47 years, 6 months and 4 days.

Sister Brumbaugh's maiden name was Warner. She was married to Ephraim Brumbaugh, April 17th, '84. She was identified with the United Brethren church. Her sickness was long and her sufferings great but she bore her afflictions with Christian fortitude, until her spirit took its flight. May God bless brother Brumbaugh in his bereavement.

Funeral services conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Long of the U. B. church. Text, "It is appointed unto men once to die." Heb. ix, 27.

J. L. KIMMEL.

KLINE.—Mary Ann Kline departed this life, October 12th, 1894. She was a very exemplary member of the Bear Creek church and in her death the church loses one whose place will be hard to fill. She leaves one daughter, our sister Coler, and two sons to mourn her loss, but we trust our loss is her eternal gain. The funeral was largely attended and was preached by the writer in the Bear Creek church.

FROM LANARK, ILL.

It has long been our longing desire to secure the labors of brother J. D. McFaden to conduct a series of meetings. That hope was enjoyed a few weeks. The meetings began on the eve of Sept. 28th and continued for three weeks, lacking one day.

The sermons, we think, were very able from beginning to end and abounded in apt and timely illustrations, with which the brother excels. This was one of the times in which the unconverted moved slowly. In fact it was one of the many times they have done so with us. The immediate and visible result of this special effort was one united by immersion at the close of the meeting. The future alone will plainly reveal the benefits of these spiritual sermons and exhortations. There is a sowing time and a reaping time; if we obey the former we may reasonably expect, with a surty, the latter. We will await with patience that time.

Brother McFaden remained several days longer and delivered as many most excellent lectures which were enjoyed by all. He was called home by telegram to conduct a funeral at his home. Brother McFaden made many warm friends while with us and his earnest words and loving appeals will not soon be forgotten. And while the results of the meetings were not what we hoped they might be, yet we are content and believe that a good work was done.
